THE COURT INTERPRETER WRITTEN EXAM

What to expect at the written exam:

Please visit www.tncourts.gov to view the written examination manual for information regarding the structure and content of the written examination. Once on the main AOC webpage, click on “Programs and Services” and then on “Court Interpreters.” Once on the court interpreter page, you will be able to access the “Written Examination Manual” link.

What YOU MUST BRING to the testing session:

- Letter of admission
- Positive photo identification – This must be either a United States government-issued driver’s license or passport. If you do not possess either of these, contact Mary Rose Zingale at (615) 741-2687 PRIOR TO THE REGISTRATION DEADLINE.
- Two (2) pencils

You will not have access to any of your personal belongings during the exam. If you will be in need of medication during the exam, please make arrangements with the proctor ahead of time or make a note on your application form.

Please note that your examination scores, as well as all other information in the Court Interpreter Credentialing Program’s records, are considered public records under state law and are subject to disclosure upon the request of a member of the public.

The AOC will send you a letter of admission confirming your scheduled testing session. IF YOU HAVE NOT RECEIVED A LETTER OF ADMISSION BY NOVEMBER 12 CONTACT THIS OFFICE IMMEDIATELY.
